157.	A1 is awarded a throw-in from the sideline. A1 takes 3 small steps in the same direction before releasing the ball but does not move a distance greater than 1 meter. This is a throw-in violation.
158.	A1 is in the act of shooting for a 3-point field goal when B1 commits an unsportsmanlike foul on A1. The ball does not enter the basket. A1 shall be awarded 3 free throws, followed by a team A throw-in from the throw-in line from its frontcourt.
159.	Neither team has the control of the ball when B1 commits a technical foul. Before the ball becomes live for team A free throw, A1 commits a technical foul. The equal penalties cancel each other. The arrow favours team B. The game shall be resumed with a team B alternating possession throw-in.
160.	B1 fouls A1 on his shot for a 2-point field goal. The ball is in the air when A2 is charged with a technical foul. The ball enters the basket. The game shall be resumed with a jump ball.
161.	With 0:45 remaining on the game clock in the 4th quarter, A1 dribbles in his frontcourt when B1 taps the ball to team A backcourt where A2 starts to dribble. B2 now taps the ball out-of-bounds in the team A backcourt with 6 seconds remaining on the shot clock. Team A is granted a time-out. Coach A has the right to decide whether the game shall be resumed with a throw-in from the throw-in line at the team's frontcourt or from the team's backcourt. If from the frontcourt, team A shall have 14 seconds on the shot clock.
162.	The head coach shall sign the scoresheet 20 minutes before the game.
163.	During an interval of play between the 1st and 2nd quarter, B6 disrespectfully addresses an official. Coach B shall be charged with a technical foul recorded as 'B'.
164.	A1 is awarded a throw-in, instead of 2 free throws. A1 thrower-in passes the ball on the playing court to A2 who scores a field goal. Before the ball becomes live again, the error is recognised. The error shall be corrected.
165.	The basket in the frontcourt is part of the frontcourt.
166.	B1 commits an unsportsmanlike foul on A1 in his successful shot for a field goal. A1 then commits a technical foul. The goal shall count. B1 unsportsmanlike and A1 technical foul penalties cancel each other. The game shall be resumed with a team B throw-in from the throw-in line in its frontcourt.
167.	A3 shot for a field goal in the air when the shot clock signal sounds. The ball touches the backboard but neither touches the ring nor enters the basket. Team B does not gain an immediate and clear control of the ball. Team B shall be awarded a throw-in from the endline, but not directly behind the backboard.
168.	A4 shot for a field goal is in the air when A5 and B5 commit a double foul. The ball enters the basket. The goal shall count and the game shall be resumed according to the alternating possession procedure.
169.	After an opening jump ball, A5 gains control of the ball on the playing court. Almost immediately A2 and B2 commit a double foul. The game shall be resumed with a new jump ball.
170.	A1 thrower-in in his frontcourt passes the ball to A2. A2 jumps from his frontcourt, catches the ball in the air and lands straddling the centre line. A2 then passes the ball to A3 in his backcourt. This is a backcourt violation.
171.	A1 rebounds the ball and swings his elbows excessively without any contact with B2. A1 is charged with a technical foul.
172.	A1 pass to A2 is deflected by B1 with a fist. This is a legal play.
173.	A3 deliberately scores a field goal in his team's basket. The goal shall not count.
174.	A1 captain commits his 5th foul and becomes an excluded player. Later at the game, coach A is disqualified. Team A does not have an assistant coach. A1 shall replace the coach.
175.	During a throw-in or during a free throw, regardless whether the game clock is stopped or not, in the judgement of an official a player deliberately delays the process of taking the ball. It is a correct procedure for an official to place the ball on the floor in this time.
176.	A1 is dribbling in his backcourt for 6 seconds when B1 deliberately contacts the ball with his foot. Team A shall have only 2 seconds remaining to cause the ball to go into its frontcourt.

177.	A1 shot for a field goal is legally blocked by B1. The shot clock signal sounds after which B1 commits an unsportsmanlike foul on A1. The foul shall be disregarded.
178.	A1 in the air receives a pass. He lands on the floor and losing his balance with the ball in his both hands, the ball touches the floor. Keeping his pivot foot on the same place, he bends-up and starts a dribble. This is legal.
179.	A4 thrower-in in his backcourt passes the ball to A5 in the frontcourt. B5 jumps from his frontcourt, catches the ball in the air and lands in the backcourt. This is legal.
180.	A5 is dribbling and the ball bounces very high. A5 takes two steps while pushing the ball to the floor on the continuous dribble. At no time the ball came to rest in A5 hands. This is a violation.
181.	A1 scores a field goal. B2 thrower-in passes the ball on his backcourt. After few seconds and with team B still in the backcourt, an official recognised that the shot clock has not started yet. The game shall be resumed with a team B backcourt throw-in from the place nearest to where the ball was located when the game was interrupted. Team B shall have a new 8-second period.
182.	With 4 seconds remaining on the shot clock. A1 pass is missed by A2 (both players are in their frontcourt). The ball rolls into team A backcourt. Before B1 gains control of the ball with a free path to the basket, the shot clock signal sounds. This is a shot clock violation and the game shall be stopped.
183.	A1 dribbles in his backcourt when a double foul is called in his frontcourt. The throw-in shall be administered from the place nearest to where the ball was when the double foul was called, that is in the backcourt.
184.	A2 has ended his dribble. A2 passes the ball to A3. B4 blocks the pass and the ball returns to A2 directly (without touching the floor). A2 starts a new dribble. This is legal.
185.	With 1:25 remaining on the game clock in the 4th quarter, A1 dribbles in his backcourt. B2 taps the ball out-of-bounds. The shot clock shows 19 seconds. Team A is granted a time-out. Coach A has decided for the throw-in from the throw-in line in its frontcourt. The shot clock shall be reset to 14 seconds for team A.
186.	The thrower-in may move laterally 1m in one direction, return to the original place and then move 1m laterally in the opposite direction. This is legal.
187.	A4 and B4 enter the restricted area before the ball has left A2 hands on the last free throw. The goal shall count.
188.	During a fight, an assistant coach may leave the team bench area to help restoring order.
189.	A1 is dribbling, taps the ball over B1 head and runs around him. The ball did not touch the floor and A1 continues the dribble. This is legal.
190.	The ball has been legally tapped on the jump ball. A2 jumps from his frontcourt, catches the ball in the air and before landing on the playing court, passes the ball to A1 jumper who has not yet left the centre circle in the backcourt. This is a legal play.
191.	The crew chief enters the centre circle to administer the opening jump ball between A1 and B1. After the ball is tossed but before it is legally tapped, B2 pushes A2. B2 shall be charged with a personal foul.
192.	A1 on his shot for a 3-point field goal is fouled by B1. While the ball is on its downward flight, B2 commits a goaltending violation. A1 shall be awarded 3 points and the game shall be resumed with team B throw-in from the endline.
193.	A2 is fouled and appears to be injured. Coach A comes on to the playing court but A2 insists he is able to continue playing. A2 must be substituted.
194.	B1 is charged with an unsportsmanlike foul on A1 for hitting him with his elbow. The officials decided to use the IRS to review B1 foul. When doing so, the officials realised that no contact has occurred. The foul shall be downgraded to a technical foul. This is correct.
195.	B4 fouls A4 in his successful shot for a field goal. Coach A then commits a technical foul. The goal counts and the game shall be resumed with a team B throw-in from the endline.
196.	After the game has started, an official discovers that both teams are playing in the wrong direction. The game shall be stopped and the baskets exchanged.
197.	A1 scores a field goal or last free throw, Team B is granted a time-out. Following the time-out, B3 thrower-in places the ball on the floor after which B2 takes the ball. This is legal.

198.	In a case of the fight, the officials can use the IRS without making a decision before using the IRS.
199.	With 7 seconds on the shot clock, A4 dribbles in his frontcourt when a double foul between A1 and B1 in the frontcourt occurs. The game shall be resumed with a team A throw-in and with 24 seconds on the shot clock.
200.	A1 disrespectfully communicates with an official after the game clock signal has sounded for the end of the 4th quarter. The game ends with score A70 - B76. A1 is charged with a technical foul.
201.	B3 fouls A3 dribbler. This is team B 5th foul in the quarter. A3 then throws the ball at the body of B3 (legs, torso etc.). A3 shall be warned for an inappropriate behaviour. A3 shall be then awarded 2 free throws, as a result of B3 foul.
202.	With 0:44 remaining on the game clock in the 4th quarter, A1 thrower-in has the ball in his hands when B1 making no effort to play the ball commits a foul on A2. This is B1 unsportsmanlike foul.
203.	During a half-time interval, A5 who has already committed his 5th foul commits a technical foul. The foul shall be considered as 1 of the team fouls in the 3rd period.
204.	Team A is granted time-out. While moving to his team bench, A1 pushes B1. A1 shall be charged with a technical foul.
205.	A1 accidentally causes the ball to pass through the basket from below. This is a jump ball situation.
206.	When guarding a player without the ball, the "elements of time and distance" shall apply.
207.	After a rebound, A4 remains on the floor and he appears to be injured. B1 catches the ball and starts a fast break. The official blows his whistle and stops the game immediately.
208.	Team A has been in control of the ball for 15 seconds. A1 passes the ball to A2 and the ball moves across the boundary line. B1 is trying to save the ball from going out-of-bounds and jumps from the playing court over the boundary line. B1 still in the air taps the ball by one hand and the ball returns to the playing court where it is caught by A2. Team A remains in control of the ball.
209.	The opinion of the commissioner shall decide when the officials disagree.
210.	A3 and B3 enter the restricted area before the ball has left A2 hands on the last free throw. The ball touches the ring but does not enter the basket. Team A shall be awarded a throw-in.
211.	A3 thrower-in has the ball in the hands when A4 fouls B4. This is team A 5th foul in the quarter. B4 shall be awarded 2 free throws.
212.	A1 pass from his backcourt touches an official who is straddling the centre line. Team A has caused the ball to come to its frontcourt.
213.	During the pre-game warm-up, A1 and B1 commit the technical fouls. The technical foul penalties cancel each other. The game shall begin with a jump ball.
214.	A1 is dribbling in his backcourt for 4 seconds when B1 taps the ball which goes out-of-bounds in team A backcourt. Team A shall have 4 seconds to move the ball into the frontcourt.
215.	A2 scores a field goal. Coach A request for a time-out shall be granted.
216.	With 10 seconds remaining on the shot clock, A1 dribbles when a held ball is called. The arrows favours team A. The shot clock shall be reset to 14 seconds for team A.
217.	A3 is disqualified for fighting on the playing court. A technical foul shall be entered in the scoresheet against coach A.
218.	With 4 seconds remaining on the shot clock, team A has control of the ball in its frontcourt. B1 is injured. An official interrupts the game. The game shall be resumed with team A throw-in and the shot clock shall be reset to 14 seconds.
219.	A1 shot for a field goal is in the air when the shot clock signal sounds. The ball touches the backboard but misses the ring. The ball rolls on the floor. It is touched by B1 followed by A2 and it is finally controlled by B2. The game shall continue.
220.	A5 commits his 5th foul and must leave the game. A5 then commits a technical foul. A5 technical foul shall count as one of the team fouls.
221.	A1 shot for a field goal is in the air when the shot clock signal sounds. The ball misses the ring. The ball touches B1 and it goes out-of-bounds. Team A shall be awarded a throw-in.

222.	B2 commits a double dribble violation. Before the ball is awarded to A3 thrower-in, A5 commits a technical foul. This is a team control foul.
223.	A3 is setting a screen outside the field of vision of B2 stationary on the court. A3 must permit B2 to take 1 normal step towards the screen, without making contact.
224.	A1 shot for a field goal is in the air when the shot clock signal sounds. The ball bounces from the ring with still the possibility to enter the basket. B1 taps the ball away. This is an interference violation.
